

Kansas Kaleidoscope

Volume 11 Number 4

Answers for Worksheet 1: Reading Comprehension

Read the articles in Kansas Kaleidoscope to answer the following questions.

1. The native Kansa Indians, from whom the state takes its name, called themselves "the people of the south wind."
2. Kansas lies in the middle of Tornado Alley.
2. The May 2007 tornado that hit Greensburg was classified as EF5 on the Enhanced Fujita Scale.
3. After the 1951 flood, the state built many dams and levees to prevent flooding in the future.
4. The blizzard of 1886 stranded 300 passengers in Kinsley.