The Kansas State Historical Society solicits diaries, letters, and other original records, books and pamphlets written by Kansans or about Kansas, territorial and state newspapers up to 1876, photographs, and maps and atlases of the state. The Society will also be glad to consider objects suitable for the museum, especially those having a direct connection with Kansas history.

Gifts and bequests for the furtherance of the Society's work will be gratefully received. Such remembrances, in various forms, are appropriate permanent memorials to the interests of an individual or a group. A representative of the Society will be glad to consult with anyone wishing to make a gift or to establish a bequest or endowment. Address the Executive Director, KANSAS STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY, 120 W. Tenth St., Topeka, Kan. 66612.

THE COVER

"The Decoy" painted by Capt. Darrell L. Combs, U. S. M. C., Fort Meade, Md., represents a favorite tactic of the Plains Indians—the Pawnees in this case—of luring the enemy into an ambush. While the painting portrays Pawnees in northwest Kansas, they were to be found along the Santa Fe trail also as indicated in Robert A. Trennert's article about Indian policy on the Santa Fe beginning on page 243.
