THE COVER

Water color of the Battle of Mine Creek, October 25, 1864, painted by Samuel J. Reader of Topeka and reproduced from his manuscript autobiography, which is based on his diary for the year 1864. Reader served briefly in the Second regiment, Kansas State Militia, in October, when the militia was called out to help repulse Confederate Gen. Sterling Price's raid on Missouri and Kansas. The painting on the back cover, called by Reader
"Southern Battle Flag Cut Down," is from the same volume.

The Kansas State Historical Society solicits diaries, letters, and other original records, books and pamphlets written by Kansans or about Kansas, territorial and state newspapers up to 1876, pictures, and maps and atlases of the state. The Society will also be glad to consider objects suitable for the museum, especially those having a direct connection with Kansas history.

Gifts and bequests for the furtherance of the Society's work will be gratefully received. Such remembrances, in various forms, are appropriate permanent memorials to the interests of an individual or a group. A representative of the Society will be glad to consult with anyone wishing to make a gift or to establish a bequest or endowment. Address the Secretary, Kansas State Historical Society, 120 W. Tenth St., Topeka, Kan. 66612.
